

Alexandria Gazette.

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 14, 1905.

Local Matters.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:24 and sets 6:38. High water at 3:20 a. m. and 3:52 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section unsettled showers tonight and Saturday; light variable winds, becoming westerly and fresh.

River Notes.

A heavy fog hung over this vicinity this morning. Steamers on the river kept their whistles blowing for some time.

The schooner Goldie C., with lumber for Colonial Beach, and the barge Farmer's Friend for Fort Washington, loaded by Snoot & Co., have sailed.

The lighthouse tender maple will be employed for the present in replacing the buoys in the Georgetown, Eastern branch and river channels in this vicinity. She will be engaged for several days upon the work.

The work of opening the channel into to Nomin creek, which was commenced several weeks ago, but was interrupted by the breaking down of the dredging machine Chesapeake, has been resumed. The Maryland Dredging and Contracting Company, contractors for the work, having sent the big dredge Baltimore to Nomin, and she has started work there. The Nomin channel which is to be dredged to a depth of ten feet at low water, is used by sailing vessels and by the steamers running from this city to river points.

Bartram N. Stuart, of King George county, has been appointed assistant keeper of Love Point light station in place of Andrew Simonsen, transferred to Point No Point as keeper.

Complaint is made that the light on the wharf at Fort Hunt is not kept burning at night and that several vessels have recently narrowly escaped collision with the wharf, which extends out to the channel of the river.

Reception at the Synagogue.

There was a large and representative gathering at the Jewish synagogue, on north Washington street, last night, the occasion being a reception tendered the officers of the National Women's Council, now in session in Washington, by the local council. Mrs. Max Rosenfeld, president of the local council, presided. Those who spoke were Mrs. H. G. Solomon, of Chicago, president of the National Council; Mrs. H. Rosenberg, of Pittsburgh, vice-president; Miss Sadie Steiman, of Toledo, chairman of the committee on education; Mrs. Tillman, president of the Washington council; and Miss Hattie Abrams, secretary of the Washington council. These addresses were interesting and instructive and showed the wonderful and meritorious work done by this organization. Representatives of all ecclesiastical organizations of the city were present, and the assemblage was greatly interested in the proceedings. During the evening the following vocal selections were rendered: "Fear Not Ye, O Israel," by Miss Flora Bernheimer, of Washington; "Your Voice," by Mrs. Herman Friedlander; "The Plains of Peace," by Mr. Robert Wenzel, and "Sweet Salome," by Mr. P. F. Downey.

Wigwam to be Removed.

Oscola Tribe, No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, will next Thursday night gather around the council fire in their new wigwam in Odd Fellows' Hall, on north Columbus street. Oscola Tribe has been meeting in Sarepta Hall, on King street, for many years. Their wigwam was at one time located in what is known as Phoenix Hall, northwest corner of King and Royal streets. On next Sunday the chiefs, warriors and braves will assemble and make preparations to start on the trail Monday in order that their teepees may be properly pitched and guarded for a general powwow on next Thursday night in which long and short talks will be in order and the general welfare of the tribe considered as soon as the camp fires are lighted.

Organ Recital.

There was a large attendance at the Second Presbyterian Church last night where an organ recital was given by Mr. S. Frederic Smith, of the Washington College of Music, organist of the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church. He was assisted by Mr. Harrison L. Moore, tenor, of Washington. The following was the programme: "Johannes in E flat, Wely; prelude and melody in F, Handel; gavotte in B flat, H. del; air, "Comfort ye my People," from the Messiah, Handel, Mr. Moore; funeral march (by request), Chopin; Adoration, (duet), Spring song (by request), Mendelssohn; caprice, Bizet; My Redeemer and My Lord (from the Golden Legend), Buck, Mr. Moore; Intermezzo, Macbeth; final, Lemmens.

Greeting to Pastor.

The M. E. Church South was crowded last night with members of that denomination and others who had gathered to witness the ovation given by the Epworth League and others of the church to Rev. J. P. Stump, who has recently been appointed to the church in this city, as well as to Rev. Dr. J. S. Hutchinson, the new presiding elder of the district. The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. E. C. Graham in an impressive manner, and the responses by the reverend gentlemen were equally so. The programme of exercises, published in yesterday's Gazette, was well rendered, all who took part acquitting themselves in a creditable manner.

The New Depot.

The work of constructing the new union depot, a short distance beyond the western limits of the city, will, it is said, be pushed within the next few days. The necessary stone, bricks, lumber, doors, etc., are now being placed on the ground. The foundation work has been completed, and the building of the structure, it is said, will consume but a short time.

Delayed Mail.

Some persons engaged in business in this city are complaining of the fact that mail matter in many instances is allowed to remain in street boxes over-night. It is said that letters placed in receptacles about 5 o'clock in the evening are not collected until the next day. The delay is said to be the result of the limited number of collectors and distributors.

who, under the laws, work but eight hours. It is claimed that the transaction of business is being seriously hampered by present conditions.

Personal.

Mrs. Ethel King, of Alexandria, is the guest of Miss Jessie Divine, Leesburg Mirror.

Many friends of the Rev. H. St. George Tucker, who left Norfolk about six years ago to engage in missionary work in Japan, will be glad to learn that he sailed on Tuesday of last week from Yokohama for San Francisco, and will arrive in this city in a few weeks. Mr. Tucker is the eldest son of the Rev. Dr. R. D. Tucker, rector of Old St. Paul's Church, and has always been a great favorite in Norfolk, where his many friends will extend him a warm welcome on his return to his old home.—[Norfolk Landmark.]

Mrs. W. H. Lambert is seriously ill at her home on Duke street.

Mr. James R. Caton, of Alexandria, who is a prominent candidate for the lieutenant governorship, visited Leesburg on Monday. Mr. Caton is strong in the county and will be supported by his many friends.—[Record.]

The Fishery.

The receipts of herring have materially increased since yesterday, and prices are not so firm. Prices this morning ranged from $3 to $3.50 per thousand. Shad were held at 43 to 47 cents each, and buck at 25 to 30 cents. The market was selling at 60 cents each in market, and herring were bringing 15 cents a dozen. Business was lively at Fishtown. An increased number of cutters were at work, and scenes on the wharf were animated.

Corporation Court.

[Judge I. C. Barley presiding.]
Albert R. Dulany vs. William B. Dulany, in chancery; final decree.
Empire State Realty Company vs. John W. Beckley, in chancery; final decree.

Virginia S. Hite vs. Virginia K. Wharton, in chancery; final decree.
William Rogers vs. Metropolitan Life Insurance; jury and verdict for plaintiff for $210 and interest.

Property Sales.

The Mercantile-Railway Building and Loan Association has sold to Orlando H. Daniels the house and lot No. 509 north Alfred street.
J. J. Byrne has sold to Mrs. Emma T. Roche the lot at the northwest corner of Columbus and Queen streets.

Death from Paralysis.

H. L. Hines, colored, who was stricken with paralysis on the street yesterday, and who was taken to the Alexandria Hospital, died at that institution last night. The deceased was a resident of Alexandria county, and was at one time Commissioner of the Revenue.

New Bank Building.

Work on the new building for the Citizens' National Bank at the northeast corner of King and St. Asaph streets is being pushed rapidly. The iron-workers are now engaged, and much of the stone to enter into the new structure has arrived.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Six lodgers were at the station house last night.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

The regular monthly meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held tonight.

Western High School defeated Episcopal High School in a baseball game yesterday for the second time by the score of 10 to 4.

Mrs. Lillian M. Ratcliffe, wife of Mr. Frank S. Ratcliffe, formerly a resident of this city, died in Washington yesterday. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

The shed over the sidewalk in front of the electric railway station in Washington is being removed preparatory to its erection at the station on Pennsylvania avenue and 12th street.

Mr. Charles Simmons, who had recently been operated upon for appendicitis, was taken ill this morning. He was subsequently removed to the Alexandria Hospital by Officer Henderson, who used a buggy for the purpose.

Corporation Counsel Duval, of the District of Columbia, yesterday held that P. E. Walters, of Germantown, Maryland, and Darius Varcoe, of Falls Church, Virginia, being nonresidents, must pay tuition if their sons remain in the Washington public schools.

C. A. Shaffer & Co. are prepared to take orders for Easter Lilies, Sprays, Pot Plants and Fresh Cut Flowers for Easter. Call at their stall in country market and place orders.

Fried clams, 30c per dozen. Soup every day. Chas. H. Zimmerman, Market Space, m-w fr.

The Zimmerman Restaurant.

Mr. C. H. Zimmerman is serving delicious fried oysters at his restaurant in Market alley. He also has on draught fine ale and porter. His dining room is well patronized, and it is becoming more and more in favor with a large class of Alexandrians as well as visitors to this city.

Forget About Your Stomach.

If your digestion is bad the vital organs of your body are not fed and nourished as they should be. They grow weak and invite disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion and a stomach that troubles you. Forget you have a stomach from the very day you begin taking it. This is because it gets a rest—regulates and gradually grows so strong and healthy that it troubles you no more. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

A CARD.

I take this method of extending my appreciation of the many kind acts and expressions of sympathy on the part of my friends and acquaintances in the midst of the sorrow which has again overshadowed my home. They will not be forgotten, but will ever be among my most cherished recollections. Respectfully,

HENRY S. POSEY.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of CORPORATION ATTORNEY, subject to democratic primary, April 23.

Disorders in Chicago.

The strike in Chicago is still impeding the transaction of business in certain quarters of the city. While the peace conference was in session yesterday scenes of disorder prevailed on the streets. A caravan of three wagons bound for the northwestern freight house was stopped at Kinzie street bridge. Heavy planks had been placed across the structure at right angles and laced into trusses in such a manner that the planks could not be removed except by sawing.

While this was being done a wagon broke down near the bridge, evidently by a pre-arranged plan. A wheel came off and the harness broke. Around this wagon a large blockade formed, requiring half an hour to disentangle.

Charles Stuber, a nonunion driver for a piano house, was the cause of a clash between police and strikers sympathizers in State street in the afternoon. He was assaulted while delivering a load of piano stools to Montgomery Ward & Co. Dragged from his wagon, he showed fight and was pounced upon. Policemen went to the rescue and the mob's assailants fled. They were overtaken near Madison and State streets, the heart of the shopping district.

A mob hemmed in the police, and in a minute the whole thoroughfare was blocked with people and teams. A coal wagon, forcing its way through the crowd, tipped over a cab, throwing out a woman passenger. The crowd surged up and down, trampling each other and knocking down a dozen women, whose screams added to the excitement.

Two police officers were injured, one receiving a scalp wound and the other a cut on the shoulder. William Styles, one of the attacking mob, was struck on the head and his skull was fractured.

Fully 5,000 persons were in the crowd, many of them women and children. Pedestrians who found themselves caught in the disorder were helpless for a time. A few were able to get into stores adjacent, but the majority had to stand the jamming and shoving until police reinforcements dispersed or arrested members of the mob.

Calls Jefferson Fakir.

District Attorney William Travis Jerome, of New York, was the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce at Syracuse last night. He spoke on "Idealism in Business."

"Too often," he said, "the idea of business is simply to make money. The joy of doing should be the inspiring thought. The statesman should believe in the people. I have called Thomas Jefferson a fakir, and I repeat it. He was a fakir because he pretended to be a democrat, when in reality he did not believe in the people. The political machinery of today makes a public career almost impossible unless you bow to the will of a political boss. There are no bigger cowards in the world than politicians. You can take them by the throat and shake them until their teeth rattle if you only have the nerve."

Draws Color Line in Church.

Segregation of the negro, so far as church congregations are concerned, is urged in an overtone adopted by Washington Presbyterians on Wednesday. This overtone, which will be acted upon at the coming General Assembly undoubtedly will be adopted, as it has been, indorsed by a majority of the Presbyteries. The adoption of the overtone Wednesday by the Washington Presbytery was preceded by an excited discussion. It was passed against the protest of Justice John M. Harlan, of the Supreme Court, and other influential persons by a vote of 41 to 23.

Rev. Dr. W. W. Radcliffe, pastor of the most aristocratic Presbyterian church in Washington, made a vigorous speech against such action.

"The word race is not in the constitution," said Justice Harlan, "and it should not be in the standards of the church."

Pretty Pastors.

Ministers who have their faces cared for by women mass'ers do not meet the approval of the Rev. Robert A. Elwood, and he took occasion to express his views at a meeting in the Grand Opera House in Wilmington, Delaware. Mr. Elwood said Sunday that there was a young minister in Wilmington who recently was complimented on his personal appearance by the members of his congregation, with the result that since that time he has been going twice a week to a female masseur to have still further improvements made to his looks. "The kind of massage that fellow needs is to have some one meet him on a dark night and make him look pretty with a closed fist," declared the Rev. Mr. Elwood. That certain local ministers pay too much attention to their looks and not enough to their duties was attested by the minister.

Cigarette to go From the Rail.

Coincident with the enactment of the Pennsylvania State law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to minors has come an order from Superintendent Turk, of the Mohanv-Shamokin division of the Reading Railroad, forbidding the smoking of the noxious roll in stations or in the coaches of passenger trains. Station agents and train hands are urged to a vigorous enforcement of the order, in the interest of the traveling public.

Baseball.

The National and American Leagues of baseball clubs will open the championship season this afternoon. In the National League Boston will play at New York; Philadelphia at Brooklyn; Pittsburgh at Cincinnati; Chicago at St. Louis. In the American League, New York will play at Washington, Boston at Philadelphia, Detroit at Cleveland, St. Louis at Chicago.

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Seized Actress's Clothes.

While Miss Maxine Ford, an actress, was taking a bath in Chicago a constable entered her room and carted away all her clothing. She is now wearing borrowed raiment, and will continue to do so until Justice Everett decides whether she can get back her clothing, from the 12 suits of blue silk undergarments to the three picture hats. Meantime she will ride from her apartments to the theater in a closed cab. Miss Ford was appearing and ducking merrily in her private bath when the constable appeared with a writ of replevin sworn out by Miss Gertrude Hazen, who claims Miss Ford owes her $169. The constable knocked at the door of the outer room, but Miss Ford did not hear him, and finally he entered. "Who's there?" called the nymph from the bathroom, snapping the lock of the door. "My name is Jones," began the constable. "Good morning, Mr. Jones," called the actress; "if you'll just wait a minute—" "But I can't wait; I'm a constable. I've got a writ for your clothes." When Miss Ford was sure he had gone, she appeared in slippers and bath robe, to take a survey. Then, wrapped in her bedclothes, she called up her numerous friends. Everybody was willing to lend a little bit, and soon she had a temporary wardrobe.

Kirkman Dismissed.

Captain George W. Kirkman, of the Twenty-fifth infantry, has been found guilty of a number of serious charges by a court-martial at Fort Niobrara, Neb., and sentenced to dismissal from the army. The case is characterized by army officers as one of the most scandalous on record.

There are other charges standing against Kirkman, on which he will be tried May 10. These involve money irregularities and embezzlement, and, if found guilty, Captain Kirkman is liable to a prison sentence.

Captain Kirkman was alleged to have had unlawful relations with the wife of Lieutenant Louis B. Chandler, also of the Twenty-fifth infantry, stationed with Captain Kirkman at Fort Niobrara.

He and Mrs. Chandler went to New York together and stayed in a hotel there as Lieutenant and Mrs. Chandler. Kirkman deserted Mrs. Chandler, leaving her alone in New York, with the hotel bill unpaid and without money. Mrs. Chandler went to Omaha, where she committed suicide.

Insurrection in Crete.

Athens, April 14.—The spread of the insurrection in the island of Crete has caused the Italian and Austrian governments to send their fleets there and the arrival of the squadrons is reported to-day. British war vessels have been in Suda Bay for several days.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but try for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At E. S. Leadreter & Sons' drug store. Price 50c. Guaranteed.
